

Stephen Janes

Assistant Commissioner, Research & Compliance

Before his appointment to this post in March 2002, Janes served for eight years as Director of the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program for DHCD. Janes also served for seven years as the City Planner for DHCD's Research and Analysis Section, where he oversaw primary and secondary research efforts. He holds a masters degree in city planning from the University of Maryland.

